Dear Member

You are eligible for distribution of your Annuity based on a Qualified Domestic Relations Order (QDRO) which has been received by this office.

Enclosed you will find an application for Alternate Payee Benefits, including a Rollover Election/Rejection form. Be sure to complete both forms and mail them to the address above by the 15th of the month to be processed for the first of the upcoming month.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Security Alert: In addition to the forms listed above, include a copy of your Birth Certificate, Social Security card and Driver's License.

Incomplete applications will be returned.

With respect to taxes, please be advised that there is a mandatory Federal income tax of 20%, which is imposed on all lump sum distributions and most periodic distributions made to the recipient. Massachusetts State tax is calculated at 6%. These taxes do not apply to direct IRA rollovers; they will however be due if there is an early withdrawal from the Individual Retirement Account. Partial rollovers are also an option.

As a final note, please keep the office informed of any change of address. This must be done in writing. The 1099 tax forms are mailed in late January.

Section 7: Income Tax Withholding

Distributions from the Annuity Fund may be taxed. How much you're taxed depends on how and when you take your distribution. Your distributions are usually taxed as ordinary income.

If you choose a lump-sum or periodic payment for a period of less than 10 years, 20% will automatically be withheld to pay federal income taxes. Depending on where you live, state income taxes may also apply. You may elect to have other applicable taxes withheld below.

If you choose periodic payments for a period of 10 or more years, a joint and survivor annuity, a lifetime annuity or a direct rollover to an eligible retirement plan, no taxes or penalties will be withheld, but you'll eventually pay taxes on the distributions from your IRA. You may elect to have other applicable taxes withheld below.

In many cases, a 10% federal tax penalty may apply if you take a distribution before you reach age 59½. However, if you are age 55 or older and are collecting a pension from MLBF, this penalty does not apply.

I elect to have federal income tax: withheld not withheld.

10% federal tax penalty withheld

_____% or $ _____ federal income tax withheld

I elect to have state income tax: withheld not withheld.

_____% or $ _____ state income tax withheld

You can find more detailed information on the federal tax treatment of payments from employer plans in IRS Notice 2020-62. Before deciding to retire or electing a payment option, you may want to consult with a professional tax advisor.

Massachusetts state tax is calculated at approximately 6%. Members who work in Massachusetts but reside in another state may still be liable for Massachusetts state income tax. Applicants may elect to pay Massachusetts state income tax at the time they withdrawal or upon filing their income taxes.
